Notice Regarding Prohibited Dangerous Items

Carrying dangerous items in stations and on trains is prohibited under the law and the provisions of Tokyo Metro.

Examples

- Explosives
  - ammunition
  - dynamite

- Compressed Gases
  - propane gas
  - liquid nitrogen

- Matches & Fireworks
  - large quantity of matches
  - large quantity of fireworks

- Flammable Liquids
  - gasoline
  - kerosene

- Acids
  - sulfuric acid
  - hydrochloric acid

- Poisons & Agricultural Chemicals
  - chloroform
  - formalin
  - weed-killer
  - rat poison

- Items that may burst or generate toxic gas
  - re-packed or mixed bleach/detergent

- Knives, scissors, tools or sharp objects that are not properly packed

- Hot liquids that are not properly packed
  - hot coffee without a top

Some of the above items may be allowed depending on the amount, the quantity and the condition of packing.

Besides the examples above, any items that may cause harm to or be a nuisance to other passengers are also forbidden.